Despite the seemingly never-ending rain this week, the children have had some break times outside and the sports clubs after school were able to use the playground! All classes are now engaged in their new learning, and I have been hearing about how playdough is made from Ruby, facts about the Great Fire of London from Emerald, Hinduism from Sapphire and Romeo and Juliet from Diamond.

Next week, we have the West End Dance Company coming into school to work with each class on creating a dance from a text that relates to their learning and the following week Theatre Alibi are coming into school to perform 'The Parcel' to all of our children. I'm sure the children will enjoy these enrichment opportunities so please do look out for photos in the newsletters and ask your child about their experiences!

I wish you all a lovely weekend. Alison Bourne

Star Learners

Ruby

EYFS: Evie for her fantastic counting in maths. Evie has been able to count groups of objects confidently. She is now also able to identify 1 more or 1 less than a given number. During maths learning times on the carpet Evie is always keen to answer questions about her learning. Well Done, Evie! Keep up the great work!

Emerald

Year 1: Kit for his outstanding reading. Kit is fluently reading most words and is able to confidently answer questions about what he has read. You are an amazing reader, Kit, we are very proud of you!

Year 2: Arthur for his huge progress within reading comprehension. Arthur is taking his time to unpick texts to ensure he is able to answer questions efficiently. Thank you, Arthur, and well done!
